Join or Renew with The Friends Today!

If you want to become more active in helping to continue the great services and programs at the Shrewsbury Public Library, consider joining the Friends. The Friends provide the Library with financial assistance and often give time and energy to projects that require additional help. Through funding of programs for all ages, the Friends touch the lives of everyone who sets foot in the Library. In addition, the Friends also sponsor an annual foreign film festival, scholarship contest, and purchase museum passes for the community. Join today to be a part of this very special group of volunteers.
