PRESS RELEASE

Stabbing at Storage Facility

On Wednesday, April 28, 2021, at approximately 5:45 PM, the Shrewsbury Police received a 911 call for a woman bleeding from a stab wound to the neck. Officers were immediately dispatched to Extra Space Storage at 53 Clinton Street. Patrol and Detective units located a 37 year old female who had sustained a severe stab wound to her neck from a broken glass tube. The female victim was given emergency medical attention by Officers on-scene, and was later transported to the hospital by Worcester EMS paramedics. The area was secured by Shrewsbury Police with assistance from Boylston Police. A CEMLEC (Central Massachusetts Law Enforcement Council) K9 unit responded and performed an extensive search of the area. The suspect has been identified and an arrest warrant has been issued. The victim is expected to survive. We would like to advise the community that this was an isolated incident, and there is no threat to the public regarding this incident. If anyone has any information regarding this incident please contact Detective Matt Caola at the Shrewsbury Police Department at 508-841-8457.
